Until

Sting

Verse 1: Gbm E D If I caught the world in a bottle Bm Db Gbm E D And everything was still beneath the moon Bm Db Without your love would it shine for me Gbm E D If I was smart as Aristotle Bm Db Gbm E D And understood the rings around the moon Bm Db What would it all matter if you loved me Chorus: Bm Ε Α Here in your arms where the world is impossibly still Gbm D With a million dreams to fulfill Db And a matter of moments until the dancing ends Bm E Α Here in your arms when everything seems to be clear Gbm Not a solitary thing would I fear Db Except when this moment comes near the dancing's end Gbm E D If I caught the world in an hour-glass, D Bm Db Gbm E Saddled up the moon so we could ride Bm Gbm D Bm Until the stars grew dim, until: Verse 2: Gbm E D One day you'll meet a stranger

E Bm Db Gbm D And all the noise is silenced in the room Db Bm You'll feel that you're close to some mystery Gbm E D In the moonlight and everything shatters Gbm Db Bm E D You feel as if you've known her all your life Bm Db The world's oldest lesson in history Chorus: Bm E Α Here in your arms where the world is impossibly still Gbm With a million dreams to fulfill Db And a matter of moments until the dancing ends Bm E Α Here in your arms when everything seems to be clear Gbm D Not a solitary thing Do I fear Db Except when this moment comes near the dancing's end Gbm E D Oh, if I caught the world in an hour-glass Db Gbm E Bm D Saddled up the moon then we would ride Gbm Bm D Bm Db Gbm D Bm Until the stars grew dim, until the time that time stands still, until...
